

Dear Decophiles,

November 2023

Annual General Meeting and End of Year BYO Picnic

Queens Gardens has lately proved an ideal location for the society's Annual Picnic. Close to the city and readily accessible to most members, this cool, shady place (with picturesque lake within) as seen below, is what we need to calm us down at the beginning of summer and before the Festive Season begins.

All will have recently received the Membership is Now Due Notice (where applicable), together with invitations to the Annual General Meeting and End of Year Picnic.

I am expecting that this Decophile letter will serve as a reminder to the Notice to both events before we meet at Queens Gardens on December 10th. In the meantime, our Treasurer is happy to respond to any queries.

Yours decoratively,

Annual General Meeting
